

Professor Dr. Aoife Foley PhD

Chair in Net Zero Infrastructure, School of Engineering, The University of Manchester

2012 Fellow Institution of Engineers of Ireland

2011 PhD School of Engineering, University College Cork

2009 Senior Member Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers

2001 Chartered Engineer Institution of Engineers of Ireland

1999 MSc Transportation Engineering, Trinity College Dublin

1996 BE Civil Engineering, University College Cork

2023 – Present, Chair in Net Zero Infrastructure, School of Engineering, The University of Manchester

2022 – 2023 Professor in Energy Systems, Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering, Queen's University Belfast

2019 – 2022 Reader, Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering, Queen's University Belfast

2018 – 2023 Director, Sustainable NI

2011 – 2018 Lecturer, Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering, Queen's University Belfast

2010 – 2012 EPA Climate Change Research Fellow, University College Cork

2009 – 2010 Lecturer, Dept. Civil Engineering, University College Cork

2006 – 2010 Project Manager, PM Group, Cork

2004 – 2005 Business Development Manager, SWS Group, Cork

2003 – 2004 Executive Engineer, Cork County Council, Cork

2000 – 2003 Infrastructure Manager, Siemens Ltd., Dublin

1999 – 2000 Consultant Engineer, ESB International, Dublin

1998 – 1999 Graduate Engineer, Cork City Council, Cork

1996 – 1997, Site Engineer, PJ Hegarty & Sons, Cork