

Request for Information on Researcher Exchange and International Joint Research Programs

If you have any information on open calls related to researcher exchange and international joint research programs, we would greatly appreciate it if you could share the program details with the RD20 Secretariat.

Upon review for relevance and appropriateness, we will consider posting the information on the RD20 website.

When submitting program details to the RD20 Secretariat, we would appreciate it if you could include the following information:

Implementing Institution:

Program Title:

Program Description:

Program URL:

Preferred Duration for Publication on the RD20 Website:

Thank you in advance for your assistance